

Hello Ironhorse Marines, Sailors, and Family Members,

On behalf of the HMH-461 Family Readiness Team, I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to the IronHorse Family. My name is Judy Robinson and I am your Family Readiness Officer (FRO). As the unit FRO, I am here to provide a variety of resources and communications. I hope that you are able to utilize the information that is provided on this website. Please feel free to contact me with any question you may have; whether you need assistance with settling into the area, information on available resources, deployment related issues, or any other concerns that you may have.

The Jacksonville area is a great place to live and I will be providing you with local activities, resources, and opportunities through the Ironhorse Weekly E-news. Look for these to be sent to your email address each Friday. Even if you do not live in the area, there are still many helpful resources that you may find valuable. If you do not receive emails from me, it is because I do not have an email address for you. If this is the case please contact me so I can begin to send you this valuable information. An information hotline has also been established and is updated on a regular basis. To access this information dial 1-866-242-0064 prompt 6 and then 8. Finally, HMH-461 has a website called eMarine. This website is filled with great resources, events, and educational opportunities. Your Marine must invite you to view. If you do not have access to eMarine just contact me for additional information on how to join.

You are important to us—our direct family, our extended family, and our Marine Corps Family. We again welcome you to our Ironhorse Family. Best wishes and I look forward to working with you and your family members

Warmly,

Judy Robinson
