

HMH-464 MARINE and FAMILY READINESS PROGRAM

DESIRE:

All Condors, and Condor families, are welcomed, informed, resilient, and ready for the challenges of military life.

WELCOMED:

First and foremost I want all our Condors, and Condor families, to know that Casey and I look forward to serving with each of you and getting to know you and your families. We welcome your energy and input, and hope to see you at our next squadron activity!

INFORMED:

Mrs. Samantha Miller is our Family Readiness Officer (FRO). She serves to ensure our Marines, Sailors, and family members have knowledge of, and access to, all of the resources available through the Marine Corps, MCCS, and the local community. Marines, Sailors, and families can only make informed decisions when kept aware of squadron activities and tasking.

RESILIENT:

As Marines and Sailors, we know our loved ones sacrifice much to support our choice to serve this great Nation. We must not take this for granted. Our goal is to manage our lives and find a balance that allows us to excel in mission readiness while making time to enjoy ourselves and family along the way.

Resilient Marines, Sailors, and families are better able to manage daily stressors as well as the consequences of our military service. Resilient service members and families are independent AND interdependent. Together we must develop and nurture a support system comprised of the FRO, the chain of command, neighbors, other military families, and relatives.

READY:

A "ready" Condor or Condor family doesn't necessarily have all the solutions, but will know where to find them. Participation in squadron events, LINKS, Financial Management, MCCS, medical/dental health, and the multitude of other Marine Corps Unit, Personal and Family Readiness Program resources will greatly contribute to a "ready Condor" and a "ready Condor family" by building individual courage and mutual confidence.

THANK YOU for your support and your service to our Nation,
I look forward to serving alongside each of you!

Lieutenant Colonel Matthew B. Robbins
Commanding Officer, Marine Heavy Helicopter Squadron 464
